

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF THE HISTORY OF PHARMACY

GEORGE URDANG MEDAL NOMINATION FORM

The George Urdang Medal was established in 1952 in honor of Professor George Urdang, one of the founders of the American Institute of the History of Pharmacy (AIHP) and a renowned scholar of the history of pharmacy. The Medal is awarded for an original and scholarly publication, or series of publications, pertaining primarily to historical or historico-social aspects of pharmacy. The Medal may also be awarded for popular works intended to achieve more widespread appreciation for, and better understanding of, pharmacy and its past among members of the pharmaceutical profession, allied professions, or the public.

The Medal is awarded without restriction as to citizenship of the author or place of publication. Evaluation is based on competence of research and skill of interpretation and presentation. The nominee's age, total number of publications or previous honors is not given primary consideration.

Nominations are evaluated by a committee consisting of three members of AIHP's Committee on Awards and three historians of pharmacy of established reputations from countries other than the United States.

The deadline for nominations for the 2019 competition is April 30, 2019.

Name of Nominator:

Nominator's Email Address:

--	--

Name of Nominee:

Nominee's Mailing and Email Address:

--	--

List publication(s) exemplary of the highest level of historical work and originality achieved by the nominee. (Complete bibliographic citations needed for books or series of articles related to a single theme):

--

If available, please provide:

1. A hard copy or digital copy of the publication(s) identified above; and
2. A copy of one or more published evaluative reviews of the nominated work.

Evaluate briefly (100 words or less) the originality and historical qualities of the publication(s) that merit recognition by the Medal:

Optional: List bibliographic citations of as many as four additional scholarly publications that confirm the historical and scholarly merits of the Nominee's publications.

Signature of Nominator

Date

Please email completed form to aihp@aihp.org or mail to:

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF THE HISTORY OF PHARMACY
777 HIGHLAND AVENUE, MADISON, WI 53705